

Reading On The Move

Why? Cause and Effect

Assessment

Use your booklet to help you fill in the blanks for the following sentences:

1. The reason why something happens, or makes another thing happen, is the _____.
2. The _____ is what happens, or the result.
3. A _____ relationship is when one event or action results in a different event or action.
4. _____ does not always come before effect.
Sometimes the effect comes first in a sentence.
5. Words like because, since, so, _____, and as a result, tell you that there may be a cause-and-effect relationship.

Answer Key:

1. cause
2. effect
3. cause-and-effect
4. Cause
5. therefore