

Part 2: Staying in a Hotel Vocabulary - Vocabulario Quedarse en un Hotel Post-Test

Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Choose the correct answer. Instrucciones: Escoja la respuesta correcta.

1. How do you greet a hotel worker?
¿Cómo saludas a una trabajadora del hotel?
 - A. Thank you
 - B. You are welcome
 - C. Hello, my name is _____. My room number is _____.
2. What do you say if the chair in your hotel room is broken?
¿Qué dices si la silla de tu habitación del hotel está rota?
 - A. Hello. There is no chair in my room.
 - B. Hello, my name is _____ in room _____. The chair is broken.
 - C. Thank you for more chairs.
3. What do you say if you do not have a remote for the television?
¿Qué dices si no tienes un mando a distancia para la televisión?
 - A. Hello, my name is _____ in room _____. We need a remote.
 - B. Hello. The chair is broken.
 - C. Hello. The table is broken.
4. You need more towels. How do you ask?
Necesitas más toallas. ¿Cómo preguntas?
 - A. We need more pillows.
 - B. Hello. My name is _____ in room _____.
C. We need more towels.
5. You need more pillows. How do you ask?
Necesitas más almohadas. ¿Cómo preguntas?
 - A. Hello. I need more pillows.
 - B. Hello. I need more sheets.
 - C. There is a fire in my room!

Bonus:

Someone is very sick in your room. What do you tell the hotel clerk?

Alguien está muy enfermo en tu habitación. ¿Qué le dices al recepcionista del hotel?

- A. There is a fire! Call the fire department!
- B. There is a thief! Call the police!
- C. There is a sick person in the room! Call the ambulance!